Milk bottle thieves are apprehended

Three juveniles were apprehended by RCMP over the weekend after they were suspected of stealing money from milk bottles. They are slated to appear in juvenile court next Thursday.

The youths, around 16 and 17 years of age, were caught in the vicinity of Leon Avenue, by Constables R. A. McIntyre and H. E. Almrud. They had around $12 in bills and change between them when apprehended.

In the last few days there have been numerous complaints of householders losing milk bottle money. Thefts were reported over a wide area in the south end of the city, but particularly in the vicinity of Leon, Strathcona and Royal avenues.

Police are investigating an accident on Highway 97 between the ferry wharf and Westbank, when a light car is reported to have left the road and rolled over several times. Four women were reported in the car, but they escaped uninjured. RCMP are investigating. Names of accident victims were not available.

Chest meeting

Community Chest for Kelowna and District will hold its annual meeting this Wednesday, in the Health Unit at 300 Queensway, at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to attend this important meeting in order that it may learn through reports of the various participating agencies just what is being done for welfare in this community.

Make clean sweep in curling finals

The McAllister rink of Vancouver Club walked away with the hardware at the sixth annual B.C. ladies' curling finals held in Kelowna last week.

Winning the Collinson Trophy on Friday night, they went on to defeat the previously undefeated Lytle rink from Capilano Club for the Eaton Trophy and the championship of the province. Above, they are seen with the Collinson Trophy resting on one of the coffee tables each of them also won. Left to right they are: lead, Mrs. D. W. Campbell; second, Mrs. Harry Tansley; third, Mrs. R. H. Haddon, and skip, Mrs. Jack McAllister.

Vancouver rink walks off with major honors in curling finals

Transportation

Transportation will be provided to and from the Red Cross blood donor clinic which opens here tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Stirling, chairman of the blood donor committee, stated two volunteer drivers will be on duty during the three-day clinic. Those who desire transportation should telephone 3311.

Clinic is being held in the United Church hall from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Minimum objective is 1,000 pints of blood.

Mrs. Jack McAllister's rink from Vancouver walked off with all the honors in the sixth annual B.C. Ladies' Curling Association playdowns which concluded here late Saturday afternoon.

The foursome not only captured the T. Eaton Trophy, emblematic of the ladies' provincial curling championship, but they also took home the Collinson Trophy, top prize in the secondary event, which they won Friday evening.

Saturday's final was a thriller from the start, and early in the game Mrs. Bert Lytle's rink from Capilano, undefeated until going into the finals, indicated it was well on the way to the provincial title after taking a five-end in the third. However, the McAllister rink settled down to some steady playing and they soon erased the early Lytle lead to take the final game by a 12-10 score.

Both the McAllister and Lytle rinks will compete in the Western Canadian championships to be held in Vancouver next month.

Total of ten rinks competed in the Eaton event, with five of them comprising "A" division, and the balance "B" division.

The Eaton trophy was presented at a cocktail party and banquet held in the Royal Hotel Saturday night, at which the winners and runners-up were hosted by George Reid, manager of Eaton's local store. T. Eaton Co. are the sponsors of the curling playdowns and pay expenses for the two teams competing in the Western Canadian finals.

COLLINSO TROPHY
Mrs. A. S. Underhill, of Kelowna, immediate past president of the BCLCA, presented the Collinson trophy to the McAllister rink, after the latter team defeated Mrs. Annie Miller, of the Pacific Club Friday evening. Final score was 13-8.

Before leaving for their homes yesterday, competitors lauded the hospitality of Kelownians and also commended the Kelowna Ladies' Curling Club for sponsoring such a well-run bonspiel.

"We would love to come back anytime," declared Mrs. McAllister, spokeswoman for the Vancouver contestants. "The hospitality has been wonderful. I've never competed in such a well-organized bonspiel."

Rinks competing in the "A" division for the T. Eaton Trophy were: Stephen of New Westminster; Hansen of Kimberley; McAllister of Vancouver; Johnson of Bralorne, and Fuller of Nanaimo. "B" divisions rinks were: Lytle of Capilano; Alston of Kelowna; Anderson of Vernon; Miller of Pacific Club, and Ferguson of Peachland.

In the "A" division play, Fuller started out strongly with two straight wins, their first stopper coming from McAllister. Mrs. Robert Fuller, the skip, played the series with a swollen jaw, resulting from tooth extraction that required stitching.

PLAYOFF TIE
McAllister and Hansen tied things up in "A" division, with three wins, one loss apiece, and met in a tie-breaking game on Saturday morning. In their 12-end, McAllister led 7-2 on the seventh end, but Kimberley climbed up to 7-5 on the ninth and had a good chance in the tenth, but failed to split two of McAllister's rocks sitting in front of the house, and left the Vancouver Club rink sitting three to make the score 10-5. Hansen won.

Rutland residents approve $180,000 water works plan

RUTLAND — Rutland residents have unanimously endorsed a $180,000 domestic water works system.

Plan was submitted at a meeting Thursday night by Associated Engineering Services Ltd. Cost to members of the newly formed Rutland Waterworks District, will be $4.00 a month on the basis of 200 connections, in addition to a per lot parcel tax of $9.00 a year whether having water connections or not. Charges to commercial establishments will be slightly higher.

Water will be pumped to a 150,000 gallon water tower located on the Belgo bench above the airport landing field. Water will be pumped from Mission Creek. Provincial government will be requested for a loan under the domestic water improvement districts loan act to be amortized over a 25 year period.

There were many questions asked, but at the close of the discussion not a single vote was withheld against the proposal. As outlined by Chairman H. D. Dendy, and further explained by Don Mc Masters and W. H. Ralston of the engineering firm, the plans call for a system that will be adequate to serve the district for many years to come, not only for domestic use but for garden sprinkling and for fire protection.

COST DOUBLED
The cost is almost double that of a system outlined in a preliminary report by the water rights branch engineering service, but that plan was for domestic water use only.

It was pointed out a future increase of connections up to 450 in number could be anticipated and when this number is reached the cost per month to users would be reduced to $2.75 per month.

Householders connecting with the system will have lines run to their lot line without charge, but a connection charge of $50 each will be made for subsequent applications for a connection after the system is completed and the ditches filled in.

The source of water is to be Mission Creek, with a supply of storage water to be purchased from the B.M.I.D. during the summer months, when all available water in the creek is normally diverted to irrigation works under registered water rights.

The provincial government will be approached for a loan under the Domestic Water Improvement Districts Loan Act, to be amortized over a 25 year period. As soon as this is approved tenders will be called for, and it is hoped that construction will start early in April, and the system will be in operation by July.

Whodunit fans will have chance of solving mystery

Something new in contests is coming up!
The "Whodunit" fans are to have an opportunity of solving a murder in the Ogopogo Pool.
A murder was committed at the night show during the Kelowna regatta while the aquabobs are presenting one of the spectacular water ballets in the pool.

COLOR CONTEST STARTS IN TODAY'S COURIER

Boys and girls between the age of five and eleven years will have the opportunity of winning a bicycle, dolls and sports equipment.
The Kelowna coloring contest which starts in today's Courier and which runs every Monday until March 26. Parents who have more than one child may obtain extra copies of the color blanks at the Courier office.

Sponsors of the contest point out that parents who encourage their children to compete in the contest, will be assisting in home education. Every child is taught to use crayons and colors in schools.
Start your children tonight! It will be fun for them, and it will give you a chance to be actively associated with them.

Can you suggest suitable name?

"Athlons Tower"; "Ogopogo Stadium"; "Ogopogo Pool".
These are a few of the names commonly used at the Kelowna Aquatic Association plant in the City Park.

With an extensive renovation program now underway at the aquatic, directors feel they would like to complete the naming of the facilities, and are offering three family aquatic memberships to the person or persons who comes up with the most appropriate names.

They are seeking a suitable name for the lounge, the dining room, and the dance hall. Only stipulation is that the name should be along the nautical theme, or one closely associated with the regatta or water sports.

Entries should be submitted to the "Aquatic contest" and mailed or brought in to The Courier office.

Aquatic directors are meeting within the next two weeks and are anxious that suitable names be decided on at that time.

Husbands do household chores as women take to curling

"Well, I got the diapers washed, the meal cooked, and the children settled!" exclaimed one husband, with a sigh of relief as he settled himself in the curling rink to watch the women folk take part in the B.C. ladies' curling playdowns.

Husbands, grandmothers and—well—just anyone kind enough to help out, were commended to help out during the ladies curling playdowns last week. Other things remaining to be done at home simply had to wait until the bonspiel was over.

Entertainments held in honor of the visiting ladies were enjoyed both by those honored and by the busy women responsible for these arrangements.

At the smorgasbord given in the Legion hall Thursday evening the table decorations attracted much attention. Originated by Mrs. Stan Burch, to whom full credit is given, and by her assistants, these took the form of a curling rink, Ogopogo at the bonspiel, and a killed Scot.

Only two days to obtain '56 licence plates

Government agent Ross Oatman expects the number of passenger car licences to surpass the total sold today late this morning.

Last year, two days before the deadline, 3363 tabs were sold while this morning the figure stood at 3300 just 66 short.

Truck licences are not moving well, as 1050 were reported issued today compared with 1220 last year, leaving at least 170 to be purchased.

Kelowna's numbers in passenger car plates will be from 244 to 249 thousand while trucks will bear plates numbered C-60 to 69 thousand.

Restrictions for gift blood are explained

Conveners in charge of the Red Cross blood donor clinic being held here on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday wish to explain some confusion among would-be donors concerning who may or may not give.

Donors having had jaundice in the last twelve months are advised not to give. If, however, the attack is ancient history, having been suffered in infancy, or when small, it is quite permissible to be a donor.

Blood from such donors is not used whole, but marked for use as plasma.

Malaria is another case in point, those having had attacks recently not being acceptable as donors.

A third point where some confusion exists concerns those having undergone a major operation, and those women having had a baby within the past twelve months. Such would-be donors are asked not to offer blood, as they need what they have more than anyone else.

The ladies' auxiliary to the Canadian Legion is catering for this in the United Church hall.

Rotary will again sponsor folk festival

Kelowna Rotary Club will again sponsor the Folk Song and Dance Festival on Saturday, May 26, it was announced this morning.

Last time Rotarians sponsored the show was in 1952, and it has been revived through popular request. Anyone interested in taking part in the festival should contact Max de Puyfer, 1978 Abbott Street, telephone 2344.

Preference will be given to those who have their own national costumes.

Firemen ready to donate pint of blood

Kelowna Volunteer Fire Brigade will set a good example when the Red Cross mobile blood donor clinic arrives here tomorrow for a three-day visit.

The smoke-eaters plan to turn out tomorrow night en masse to donate a pint of blood at clinic headquarters which will be set up in the United Church hall. Clinic hours for the three days will be 1:30 to 4 p.m. and 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Kelowna firemen take an active part in community affairs. Not only have brigade members dedicated themselves to save life and property, they also assist in bringing a little Christmas cheer to destitute families through the medium of their toy shop which they operate every year. Last week each member agreed to donate a pint of blood to the Red Cross blood donor's clinic.

Above picture shows brigade members, with sleeves rolled up, ready to offer the life-giving blood.

Never before is blood so urgently required, declared Mrs. Richard Stirling, chairman of the blood donor committee. She expressed the hope that other organizations would follow the example of firemen by attending the clinic. Minimum objective of the three-day clinic is 1,000 pints of blood.

Will you do your part?

Tranquille not the answer

There has been some casual discussion lately to the effect that Tranquille sanitarium might be converted into a hospital for the chronically ill people of the interior. Tranquille is being gradually closed as it apparently has outlived its usefulness as a TB hospital.

It is natural, when people in all the interior cities are giving some attention to the problem of the chronically ill, that when a large hospital property becomes available consideration should be given to the possibilities of its conversion.

Physically, perhaps the buildings at Tranquille would be suitable. It would seem they should be. However, there is much more to be considered than the physical suitability of buildings.

Chronically ill people in the broad sense are older persons. For these persons to be removed to Tranquille would create many hardships. How frequently, for instance, could friends and relatives of the Kelowna patients visit them in Tranquille? And yet surely as much as medical treatment the chronically ill need the companionship of friends and relatives. Kamloops is a hundred miles away, but, unfortunately, Tranquille is not located at Kamloops. It is another dozen miles away and that dozen miles is a considerable extra deterrent to friendly visitation. It is one thing to get to Kamloops; it is quite another thing to get to Tranquille.

In our opinion Tranquille is too far removed from Kamloops to serve as a suitable hospital for the chronically ill of even that city. It is much, much less suitable for the patients in the Okanagan cities. These people need their friendly contacts; they should not be isolated a hundred miles away.

No, Tranquille is not the answer to the problem.

Great step forward

It was announced last week that 11,000 school children in this area will receive the Salk anti-polio vaccine during the 1956 program of the South Okanagan health unit.

This announcement followed hard on the heels of a statement in which Canadians were told recently that Salk anti-polio vaccine is entirely safe and 85 per cent effective in preventing paralysis.

It took no legal or mathematical mind to grasp the significance to Canadian families of the announcement by Health Minister Martin: The dread killer and crippling poliomyelitis has become, like diphtheria and smallpox, a disease that can be effectively fought by preventive vaccine.

One health department official said the results indicate the day is in sight when polio cases in Canada will be as unusual as smallpox and diphtheria are today. They, like polio, once struck communities in sudden epidemics, leaving death and wastage of bodies in their wake.

Mr. Martin's report was based on a scientific study of about 1,500,000 Canadian children between the ages of 5 and 10 of whom 589,716 received two or more doses of the vaccine last year and 885,000 were not inoculated.

Only five cases of paralytic polio occurred among those inoculated, or a rate of .84 per 100,000. Among those not inoculated, 51 cases appeared, or a rate of 5.76 per 100,000.

The study showed the vaccine to be absolutely safe. The five paralytic victims among inoculated youngsters "contracted polio in spite of and not because of the vaccine."

"These results clearly demonstrate the effectiveness of the Salk vaccine as a preventive against paralysis from poliomyelitis," Mr. Martin said.

The 1955 polio incidence in Canada was about one-quarter of the five-year average from 1950 to 1955. This average included the 1953 epidemic, worst in the country's history, when 8,700 reported cases killed more than 400 persons and left 5,000 with paralysis.

Canadians now can look forward with confidence to the 1956 inoculation program. Its aim: third shots for children who received two injections last year and two shots to another 2,000,000 not yet inoculated.

The chances of an inoculated child getting polio are about one in 120,000 on the basis of the 1955 study.

Calgary ends store hours

The city council of Calgary recently ended the store-closing hours controversy which had waged in that city for some months. It ended the argument by simply throwing out the whole by-law controlling the opening and closing of retail stores.

The Calgary Herald editorially made the following comment:

Calgary's antiquated early-closing law governing retail stores has been scrapped.

Good.

Now the retail merchants of this city are free to compete for public favor and the citizens are free to shop around for the kind of service they want.

And that is the way it ought to be in a private-enterprise society.

Only in this way can aggressive, efficient merchandisers show their mettle, and only in this way can the public be reasonably sure that it is getting the protection it deserves from the unhampered operation of the free-enterprise system.

It is refreshing to see something more than lip-service paid to that system, even if it has had to be forced down the throats of some people almost with a pitchfork.

And compliments are due those aldermen who, from the beginning, have stuck to their guns in the attempt to have this moss-backed, unnecessarily restrictive and much-too-comfortable (for retailers) legislation taken off the books.

The desirable end was not attained without some envious political sniping by Alderman McIntosh at Alderman Macdonald's telephone poll, and the expected angling for votes by Alderman Starr and Alderman Morrison with their talk about "the little man" and "the leisure class." Alderman Brecken's grotesque idea of what constitutes an "unloaded" question (Do you wish the small-store owners to be put out of business?) added nothing to the debate.

Alderman Mack, we are glad to note, pounced on the retailer who made the astonishing remark that "the public has been pampered enough". The gentleman, we presume, would describe himself as a free-enterpriser dedicated to serving the public. Perhaps a little more competition will teach such people not to confuse decent service with pampering.

In any event, it is good that this prolonged controversy . . . and it did not need to be so prolonged . . . has ended in the manner it has. It is now up to the retail stores to adjust to the new situation, each according to its own lights, and we think this will be accomplished without much of the "chaos" which is so portentously predicted by some people who preached free enterprise but willingly went along with one hand tied behind their backs.

There are still several categories of business in Calgary with city-controlled hours, drug stores, barber shops, garages and service stations.

Now that the retail stores have been unshackled . . . some of them unwillingly of course . . . it is proper to ask why the city should continue to let itself be used as a policeman for these other private enterprises?

PLAN 145—This home of three bed rooms was built and displayed fully furnished at the 1955 Pacific National Exhibition. This is the first home ever displayed on a fair grounds showing a full basement, finished recreation room, and a clear span, no post or beams. This plan deserves consideration, as it has a large kitchen, a combination living and dining area, plus open stair way to the basement and recreation area. Plans available at The Building Centre B.C. Ltd., 1240 West Broadway, Vancouver, B.C.

You and your home

Our houses lack distinctive beauty

BY JOHN WOODWORTH

(This is the fourth article of a series by city architect John Woodworth on "You and Your Home.")

Looking over a brand new subdivision, a friend of mine once muttered: "The guy who designed those must be the guy who designed the box lunch!"

Mind you, the remark originated in Toronto, where acres and acres of unlovely brick boxes spread now like a measles skin over farmlands on the city outskirts.

ALL LOOK GOOD

Unlike Torontonians we can also quickly hide bad man-made design with Nature's well-proportioned shrubbery and green, green lawns. Almost any house looks good in Kelowna.

Pick any neighborhood, and look at the houses, not the greenery. You'll find several unrelated windows designs per wall (glass blocks on the diagonal beside a hexagonal window next to a gaping picture window). You'll find overall proportions bad—tiny houses with high-pitched roofs, houses set awkwardly atop basements ten feet in the air, squat houses with flat roofs like missing teeth amid rows of cottage roofs.

You'll find clashing colors side by side, and every color in the book on the same wall, or occasionally a well-proportioned window ruined by color is the wrong place. And you'll find wrought iron or striped aluminum posted on after construction—perhaps to hide a defect, but in its use producing more chaos.

The faults aren't confined to new houses. The fact is that the patches of stonework, boarding, shakes and shingles that are today's fad, blend more readily with the coastal scene than did the Spanish tiles, California stucco and bandsaw woodwork of previous periods.

Nor are the faults confined to the average house. I remember scouring the "stately homes" districts with a photographer once looking for one good example apiece of the traditional home styles, including Modern. The Modern came easy—we haven't received awards here without some reason.

LOOKED TERRIBLE

But for days and days every traditional design that "looked good" from the road, looked terrible through the unfettered eye of the camera. The answer was simple. The grounds of the stately homes were beautiful. But the basic proportions, window treatments, and adherence to the general concepts of traditional design—well!

In the end we settled for a Georgian with a bulge at the back—the bulge was behind a tree. The Colonial was undersized, but looked genuine in the photograph. The Tudor was good face on. The French Provincial had a suspicious British ancestry. And the Cape Cod, though attractive outside was dark and dreary inside.

If you too think Kelowna is full of gracious homes, then don't sight-see when the leaves are off the trees and the architecture is showing. And don't look at houses from the side-yards or the lane. The architecture rarely goes round that far.

PRODUCE PLEASURE

Why should one wish for better design in houses?

I think that good visual appearance in things produces pleasure—real pleasure—so real you can almost put a dollar sign on it. Bad design is pleasure lost.

Think of the people who prefer Kelowna to other cities in which to live. In most cases, it is the climate, coupled with the fact Kelowna is a "clean" city.

The defence then in asking for better design in houses—for the delight that with Commodore and Firmness produce architecture, according to Vitruvius—is that good design can produce pleasure.

The pleasure is not just for the Sunday driver who looks at the house, or for the owner whose house is looked at or photographed or wins design competitions. These pleasures may be transient.

DAY-TO-DAY

The real pleasure in a well-designed house comes day-to-day, season to season, for as long as the house stands. It may come when the morning sun floods the breakfast table with warm light, or throws a tracery of leaves along the garden wall. It may come when birds settle in the garden, and you watch from the kitchen window. It may come when you sit with the children at lunch in the garden, and the heat from the sun off the house makes you drowsy.

It may come with the picture of wind-lashed trees in the window, the patter of rain on the roof, or the patter of rain on a sidewalk. It may come from a blaze of light over house and garden at night, or firelight in a shadowy living room seen through a doorway, or from children peering through rails on the stairway. It may come with the moonlight seen from a bedroom window, or from moonlight shadow patterns on the bedroom wall. It may come when you stand in the dark on a balcony looking at stars. These are real pleasures. Yours for the taking. Good design makes itself known.

Power pole sitting cats do not keep union hours, Penticton lineman finds

Cats that get on city electric light poles are a source not only of potential electrical trouble, but of serious expense to the city, the Penticton city council agreed.

This is particularly so when the felines choose weekend hours, after five o'clock on Friday nights, for their Mount Everest actions.

This was all made clear when T. G. Swann, city poundkeeper, speaking as a private citizen appeared before council, in connection with getting the cats down from the poles. Mr. Swann, who was thanked by Mayor Oscar Matson for his humane thought in consideration of the animals, was told that when it is necessary to call out a city lineman to take a cat from a pole the union rules that he be paid $16.53.

Mr. Swann said that R. Coe, city electrical superintendent, had stated that to leave cats on the poles would be risky as they might create a short-circuit, burning out wires, necessitating a call-out of the crew and a still higher overtime bill.

He said that the men of the electrical department were willing to rescue the animals, and did not themselves seek the extra pay, but their union compels them. His Worship confirmed this. Mr. Swann said the local SPCA was willing to pay something towards getting the cats down, but not the entire amount of $16 to $17, as the association's treasury would not stand that.

Mayor Matson said that if an owner wanted to get a cat down, he should if he could afford, pay the cost of rescue. The mayor pointed out that the cat had started the discussion had been on the pole for two days before the city was notified and that this being so, it

Winfield church guild planning Easter bazaar

WINFIELD — Afternoon branch of St. Margaret's Church Guild has set April 4 as the date for the Easter bazaar. Members recently met at the home of Mrs. Paul Konig. Two members from Okanagan Centre and two delegates from the evening branch will attend the next meeting to help finalize arrangements for the bazaar.

George Stringer, resident biologist of the department of fisheries of the B.C. game commission, was the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Ocelots fish and game club. He gave a talk on fish in the valley, and told the methods and types of poison to be used in clearing course fish from lakes in the area.

Regular meeting of the PTA was held in the school recently, and reports on the rural teachers' supper were given.

A discussion on overcrowding school courses took place. A. G. Pollard, school trustee, answered questions regarding the financial side of the problem. It was decided a St. Patrick's dance would be held in the memorial hall, March 16. The parents attendance prize was tied by the classes of Miss Thompson and Mr. Hopper.

Mrs. F. J. Ratcliffe gave a report port on the PTA regional conference held in Vernon. The PTA will undertake a census of all pre-school and school children in the district. It is hoped that the Oyama and Okanagan Centre PTA's will do likewise.

New sewer plant at Penticton

PENTICTON — City council has been told the cost of a proposed new sewer plant will run between $15,000 and $18,000.

This figure would cover all costs including the specifications for the plant, but would not include supervision while the work is underway.

Alderman Harris said Dr. D. S. Stanley, the city's consultant on a sewer system, had said his firm would carry out all required engineering, prepare the plans and specifications for a fee of three per cent. They could do the job now, but could not guarantee to be able to do it later.

Peachland council studies telephone fire alarm system

PEACHLAND — The regular meeting of the Peachland council was held recently with Reeve G. W. Hawley presiding, and Councilors J. Jackson, H. Birkelund, A. E. Miller and R. Lloyd-Jones in attendance.

It was decided to drop the insurance policy providing protection for volunteer fire fighters, as the policy did not cover citizens who might assist fighting a fire even though they were directly under the control of the fire chief. In 1955 amendments were made to the workmen's compensation act, making the act applicable to volunteer firemen.

The council is investigating the possibility of installing a phone controlled alarm system. A letter was received from Oyama, where a system of this type is currently in use.

It has been reported that it is likely that the grant to the municipality from the Provincial government will be increased by $1,200 in 1956. This will help to offset the seventy cents per diem charge levied against municipalities for each patient requiring hospital care. The councilors could not understand why ratepayers inside municipal boundaries must pay this charge while their neighbors in unorganized areas enjoy the same hospital services without such a charge.

A by-law is being prepared to place load and vehicle limits on roads to protect them from abnormal wear and tear during the spring thaw.

The firm of Campbell, Imrie and Ashey have presented the financial statement of the corporation for the year 1955.

The cost of printing and distributing the statement has been considered too great, but the feasibility of distributing a condensed form is being considered.

Mr. Stringer, director of social welfare for the southern interior, Miss Bennett, supervisor for the Penticton district and Mr. Lindsey, local welfare worker attended council.

Mr. Stringer outlined the work that social assistance is doing, and indicated some of its weaknesses still awaiting solution. A round-table discussion on this subject followed.

HOW to get a Friendly Loan at NIAGARA FINANCE

Drop in to see your friendly Niagara Loan advisor. He'll make it easy for you to get the Friendly Loan that suits you best. Here are important facts for you about Niagara Loans.

Who can get a Niagara Friendly Loan?—Anyone with a reputation for honesty and the ability to repay.

How much can be borrowed from Niagara?—Up to $1500; sometimes, more.

How quickly can I get money?—Sometimes in 20 minutes; within 24 hours for most loans.

How long can I take to repay?—In the table below, there are just a few of many plans. They will give you some idea of time periods allowed for different amounts... from 4 to 24 months. And for all people who have uneven income during the year, such as farmers and schoolteachers, special payment schedules may be arranged on loans above $500.

Are all loan charges the same?—Up to $500 generally, yes; but remember, at Niagara, you get life insurance at no extra cost.

Above $500; the larger the amount and the longer the time—the lower the rate. Compare... often you'll "buy" more money at less cost at Niagara.

Is life insurance on loans worthwhile?—Yes, here is a real family peace-of-mind feature. At no extra cost to you, loans of $1500 or less, are life-insured. Be sure you get this protection when you borrow.

Can I have a private interview?—Yes, your interview at Niagara will be private, courteous, and friendly.

Why do people borrow money?—A few reasons are to consolidate a group of small debts; to reduce large payments for car and truck repairs; to meet emergencies; to repair or modernize homes; to enlarge a business; for seed, stock, fertilizer for farms; and to take advantage of low prices, when cash is paid.

Do many people borrow?—Yes, in Canada, 1 family in 4 borrow each year.

Kaiser-Durban-Roche line proves effective in 10-7 victory over Canadians

VERNON — Canadians are probably quite happy they're not meeting Kelowna Packers in the OSHL finals which open Monday.

Moe Young's boys made it four in a row over the league leaders here Saturday night in closing out the league schedule with a 10-7 victory.

The result made no difference to the order of the finish which puts Vernon against last place Kamloops in one best of seven semi-final, and runner up Pentiction Vees against the third place Packers in the other semi-final series opening Monday in Vernon and Pentiction.

Packers line of Joe Kaiser, Mike Durban and Brian Roche set up some kind of a record in a free-wheeling, wide open affair picking up 20 points for their night's work.

Durban led the way with three goals and five assists while Kaiser was right behind with two and five. Roche got two goals and three assists. Aggar, Merv Bidski and Art Hart.

Kelowna took a 3-1 lead in the first but Canadians rallied for five in a row in the second to take a 6-3 lead before Packers struggled back for three more to tie it up at 6-6 before the end of the period. They continued to roll in the third, four more before Hart bagged the final goal with a scant second left. Packers out-shot the Canadians 42-35 in a clean game that saw both clubs handed only six minors, four to Vernon.

PACKERS 4 VEES 3

Kelowna Packers came through with a sweeping flourish in their season finale of schedule play on Kelowna ice Thursday night, by out playing, out skating and out-scoring Pentiction Vees, to win by a score of 4-3.

The powerful Packers were playing without the services of coach Moe Young, who tried one stint on the ice, but found it too much for his injured leg, and without scoring ace Brian Roche, sitting out the last game of his suspension.

Vees were playing Bernie Bathgate, who is now taking the place of Con Madigan, side-lined with injuries.

During the exciting game the score was tied up at three points in the 60 minutes of play.

Bill Jones and Mike Durban were the top scoring Packers, with two apiece, and Joe Kaiser earned two assists. Bill Swarbrick played a brilliant checking game, and set up a number of plays from his wing spot.

TEN PENALTIES

Packers had to sweat out six penalties to Vees four, as Bruno Sammartino and Al Swaine handed out ten minors and one misconduct. The game was too packed with hockey for any more penalties.

Doug Kilburn opened the scoring, when the game was one and one half minutes old, when Mascotto got it off the boards in the Packers zone, over to Bill Warwick, to Kilburn, just off the tress.

The play was fast the rest of the period, with very little territorial advantage, and plenty of fore-checking. Total shots on goal in the first stanza were Kelowna 8, Pentiction 8.

It was in the last minute of play when Kaiser, Middleton and Durban teamed up for the tying play. Kaiser over to Middleton on the wing, who raced in along the boards, swooped over toward the goal area, and put it on Durban's stick for the counter.

Vees started out the scoring in the second period as well, with a power play that kept Dave Gathrum kicking out rubber furiously, until Bill Warwick collected the puck in his favorite roost, and banged it past him.

Durban (Kaiser), 8:23. Penalties, MacIntyre, Dick Warwick (minor plus misconduct), Malo.

Third period—Pentiction, Malo (Kilburn, Grant Warwick), 10:20. Kelowna, Jones (Jablonski, Schai), 16:02. Penalties, Taggart, Pyett, Schai, Laidler.

Madigan was in a fight!

Those who read Thursday's Courier probably noticed an article on the front page entitled "Stay away from Madigan."

The story was a warning to Kelowna defencemen Garnet Schai not to tangle with the Vee's Con Madigan who is alleged to have said that he was "out to get Schai."

However, in Thursday night's game Madigan did not play as he has been benched for the rest of the season by coach Grant Warwick, to allow Bernie Bathgate to play.

But hockey fans did not miss a fight.

Madigan was sitting in the stands back of an injured Kelowna player Jack Kirk.

Kirk was hospitalized with an injured shoulder after a scuffle with Madigan a few weeks ago.

Madigan and another Pentiction fan began to taunt Kirk in the stands, and the latter stood up and grabbed the unidentified Pentictionite and shook him vigorously with his injured arm.

Things got a little rough and Bob Taylor rushed to Kirk's aid. Madigan pushed Taylor, but the latter came back with a stiff uppercut to the Pentiction player's face.

Today Bob is still suffering from a badly bruised hand. He did not require stitches as a radio report indicated.

Mrs. George Goode, of Nanaimo, was elected president of the B.C. Ladies' Curling Association at the annual meeting held in conjunction with the sixth annual playdowns here last week. Mrs. Goode succeeds Mrs. A. S. Underhill, of Kelowna. Nanaimo will play host to the curling championships next year.

Mrs. Neil Watson of Vancouver to the commencement of play on Ladies' Club was chosen the new Wednesday.

The curlers paraded to the rink A. B. Porter, of Vancouver, who has from the arena, where they registered the job since the inception of ed, preceded by the Canadian Legion the BCLCA.

Other officers include: Mrs. Ida Hansen, of Kimberley, first vice-president; Mrs. Betty Wills, of Victoria, second vice-president; Mrs. Georgia Watson, of Vancouver, secretary, and Miss Nell Usher, of Vancouver Business Girls' Club, treasurer.

The highlight of the social side of the four-day meet was a smorgasbord on Thursday night, and a coffee party in the Yacht Club on Thursday noon. The Kelowna Ladies' Curling Club joined with the BCLCA in sponsoring these events.

A banquet Saturday night for the winners and runners-up, sponsored by the T. Eaton Co., provided the Memorial Room of the arena, prior to the final for the four days.

The election of officers took place in the business meetings, held in the Memorial Room of the arena, prior to the final for the four days.

Moog for the extra man at a face-off in Pentiction's end. The puck dribbled out to the blue line and an Elks player fell on it. It bounded into the clear and Kilburn raced away to get the final goal on an empty net.

Vees outshot Elks by one, 22-31. Final standings in the league gives Vernon first place, Pentiction second, Kelowna third and Kamloops fourth.

BE CLEARLY INFORMED CKOV TONIGHT 10:15 p.m.

Semi-finals in Okanagan hockey loop open tonight

Semi-finals in the OSHL, a best of seven, will open at Pentiction and Vernon tonight with Vees going against Kelowna Packers, and Canadians meeting Kamloops Elks.

The close bunching of Elks, Packers and Vees wasn't decided until Friday night when Pentiction showed enough edge to defeat Elks by a score of 7-5 in a clean, fast hockey game. Elks lost the services of Billy Hryciuk, second top point getter in the league, near the end of the first period when he was squeezed between two Pentiction players on the boards. He suffered a chest injury, possibly broken ribs.

The injury will be a tough one on Elks with play-offs coming up as Hryciuk's wingmate, Johnny Mil-lard is out for the balance of play. Referees Sammartino and Swaine called only nine penalties in a clean game with one flare-up between Bill Warwick and Elks' goalie Don Moog after Bill Warwick had slashed the goalie. They drew two minutes fighting penalties. Warwick got two minutes for slashing and a ten minute misconduct for this vigorous protests.

Kilburn and Grant Warwick each got two goals for Vees. Singletons went to Bill Warwick, Bathgate and McIntyre, Connors, Conway, Hornby, Slater and Kasky got Elks' counters. Dick Warwick picked up three assists for Pentiction. The score was Vees 3, Kamloops 1 at the end of the first. Elks rallied in the second to make it 4-3 for Pentiction.

It was 6-5 when Bill Warwick drew a tripping penalty at 18:57 of the third. Elks pulled goalie Don

Letter to sports editor

Dear Sir:

Never before have I read a more disgusting "sport" report than the one appearing in The Courier on February the 20th on the game played in Pentiction. It is indeed small wonder that most of the so-called "amateur" hockey clubs find themselves in financial difficulties.

How many parents would—if being perfectly honest—like their teen age kids to witness a disgraceful, mind-degrading and beast-instinct promoting display as the one referred to?

The sooner the several "memorial" (?) arenas are being closed for this kind of "sport" the better it would be for everybody concerned.

Minor hockey jamboree draws crowd of 1500

Highlight of the hilarious minor hockey jamboree Saturday night was the fathers and sons hockey game. The evening was enjoyed by 1500 people, with the kids ruling the roost for the evening.

Every class of hockey in the minor association was represented in the evening's fun, from the pups to the juveniles.

Penticton failed to show up for the relay race, but Fernan and Kelowna competed, with the northerners winning, thus retaining the Bennett Trophy.

ing talent added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Music for the show was supplied by Mark Rose and his high school orchestra.

MC and commentator for the show was Jack Thompson.

Announcement of the fathers and sons game was followed by an exciting relay race, in which Kelowna and Fernan competed in charge of some of the fathers had deemed it inadvisable to permit the "old crows" to play hockey, due to age and infirmity, and that their wives

"The Silver Whistle" is little theatre's third production of the current season

"The Silver Whistle," the Kelowna Little Theatre's third production of the season, is a comedy with a cast of fourteen players, nine males and five females, and there is no questioning the fact that the proportion of interesting characters in this play is unusually high. The reason for this probably lies in the fact that the locale of "The Silver Whistle" is an old folks' home, an ideal place in which to discover interesting people.

MISS NANCY GALE

Six of the cast of fourteen are guests of the home—and a great deal of the funniest comedy of "The Silver Whistle" centers around these wonderful people.

One of them is Mrs. Hammer, a rather tough old girl who is given a lot of very acid remarks to make about the people around her. Nancy Gale does this part, her second performance in a three-act play for KLT. She was previously seen in "Arsenic and Old Lace" and also in the one-act play "The Hungerers."

Then there is Miss Hoadly who hides her bottle in a hole in a tree and is rarely to be found in a sober condition. Mrs. Frank Pitt plays this part, her second this year. She appeared briefly but most effectively in "You Can't Take It With You."

MRS. H. J. HUGHES

Mrs. Una Hughes plays the role of Mrs. Sampler, a charmingly flirtatious type who has designs on every available man. Mrs. Hughes has appeared in "Golden Boy," "The Night of January 16," and in the one-act play "Goodbye to the Clown." Her role here won her the best actress award in the festival of 1934. She directed "The Valiant" which made so fine an impression on last year's festivals.

MRS. FRANK PITT

Mrs. Roy Lobb plays the part of Mrs. Gross, the religious old soul of the institution. Mrs. Lobb has acted previously in one-act plays for KLT. She appeared in "Moment of Darkness" in 1934. She has had considerable acting experience in the Brandon Little Theatre.

REX MARSHALL

Rex Marshall and Bob Leckie play the parts of two of the gentlemen guests of the home, Mr. Cherry and Mr. Beebe respectively. Rex has had many important parts in KLT plays. These include "Ladies of the Jury," "Ghost Train," "Ah, Wilderness" and several one-act plays. Bob Leckie has appeared in one play previously, "Ah, Wilderness."

Also in the cast are Frank Pitt, Joyce Cummings, Ray Davis, Gordon Sundin, Ron Irwin, Tom Marsh, Bill Millar and Art Hall. Director is Art Hall.

"The Silver Whistle" is being produced for three nights, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, March 7, 8 and 9. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Tickets are available at Brown's Pharmacy.

CARS activities are outlined at meeting

In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. Van Ackeren and vice-president, Mrs. R. F. Cruikshank, Mrs. T. F. McWilliams chaired the regular monthly meeting of the W.A. to the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society.

Welfare convener, Mrs. McWilliams, asked that she be contacted should any member know of a patient who wished to be visited. It was decided that the group continue to pay half the telephone costs of an isolated rural patient.

Arts and crafts convener, Mrs. O. Jennings, reported on the exhibition displayed at CARS annual general meeting earlier in the month, as a result of which one patient has sold a carved leather handbag and leather wallet.

Physiotherapist, Miss June Williams, asked that she be contacted for two more footstools, similar to one already finished. Mr. J. Trew-hill has offered to repair a bed table, and Mr. H. V. Acland will make long-handled shoehorns from material supplied by Mr. N. DeHart and Mr. W. Buss. Miss Williams reported that two pairs of long bed sox had been made by one patient for another, wool for one pair also donated, with the W.A. supplying the balance.

Hairstressing needs and special shoes are required for a patient, and on the latter, Mrs. McWilliams will report to the next meeting on March 13th.

Upon adjournment of the meeting, members assisted in preparations for the annual Valentine party.

SHELL BETTER DRIVING QUIZ NO. 3

PUT YOUR FOOT ON THE GAS PEDAL HERE:

See how fast you can move to the brake!

INSTRUCTIONS: Sit in a straight-backed chair with this page on the floor in front of you. Put your foot on the gas pedal. Now hold a coin out in front of you four feet above the paper (that's about forehead-high). Drop the coin and, at the same time, go for the brake. Read below to see how your reaction time rates.

HOW DO YOU RATE? Did you beat the coin to the brake? With normal reaction speed, you should beat the coin every time. The coin takes 1/2 second to reach the floor. In this 1/2 second you would travel 37 feet if you were going 50 m.p.h. On a dry pavement with brakes in normal operating condition you'd travel another 188 feet before stopping completely. So watch your speed. Always stay at least one car-length behind the car ahead for every ten miles per hour you're traveling.

Like every good neighbor in the community, the Shell Oil Company is interested in your driving safety. That's why we're glad to see new roads, and to see automobile manufacturers building extra safety into today's new cars. But the spot where there's greatest room for improvement is in the driver's seat. Better driver attitudes will make our roads and highways safer for you : : for everybody. If this test helps you think a little more about safe-and-sane driving, it will have done what the Shell people set out to do. Tear out this page and try it on your teen-agers, too. Shell—your sign of a better future on the road—suggests that you and all motorists drive safely now . . . and in the future.

Vernon and Penticton will host opening games of semi-finals; second game here on Wednesday

Both Vernon and Penticton will be hosts to the first games of the OSHL semi-finals tonight, as Kelowna Packers take on the Vees, and Kamloops go against the Becker Cup winning Canadians.

The Packers, who won their final game at Vernon on Saturday night by a 10-7 score, have a better than even chance to win their series against the world champs, according to paper records.

In season's play, the goals for and against between the two clubs has been even, 65-65, but the Vees have had more changes in their line-up since the first of the season.

YOUNG BACK

The only Packer who will definitely be out of the line-up from the team that started the season, is defence man Jack Kirk, whose shoulder separation has not mended. Coach Moe Young who has been sitting out the last few games with a bad charley horse suffered in Vernon when he was checked heavily by Orv Lavell, reports that his leg

Garnet Schall, stocky Packer defenceman, may be out of the line-up tonight, if he doesn't improve by this evening, coach Moe Young reported today. He is currently suffering from an attack of the 'flu.

is back in shape, and he will be in action tonight.

Brian Roche, who sat out three games on a suspension, was back in action on Saturday night, and coach Young had him working with Kaiser and Durban, which proved to be a very effective combination.

Buddy Laidler is the only addition to the red squad, having come up from the intermediate to fill the spot left vacant by Jack Kirk.

EYE INJURY

Vees lost the services of Jack Durston, Quebec leaguer, in the first game, when he suffered a bad eye injury after only a few minutes of play. Defence man Hal Tarala, one of their starting players, both offensively and defensively, left them late in the season after a salary difference.

Forward Con Madigan has been let go, ostensibly due to injuries, since it was the only way coach Grant Warwick could legally play Bernie Bathgate, who was filling up

Second game of the series will be played in Kelowna, Wednesday, the third in Penticton Friday and back in Kelowna Saturday.

Oilers drop second game hoop finals

Ragging the ball, and accuracy on the free throw line in the dying minutes of the game, gave Kamloops Merchants a 69-58 win over the Kelowna B.A. Oilers Saturday night. It also gave Kamloops a stranglehold on the best of five series, which they now lead two games to one.

Kamloops opened fast and jumped to a quick 18-6 lead over the slow starting Oilers, who found difficulty in getting accustomed to the lighting and baskets. The half-time score was 38-28, favor of Kamloops.

Going into the final stanza Kelowna's Dave Weins opened the scoring with a shot from the corner which didn't touch the rim. That started a short rally which brought the Kelowna quintette to within six points of the Merchants before they too started potting from all angles to again take another 10 point lead. Kelowna started all over again to narrow down the lead and with only three minutes left had whittled it down to one point, with the score board reading Kamloops 58, Kelowna 55.

FREEZE BALL

It was then Merchants called a time out and were instructed to freeze the ball. On the opening play Kelowna intercepted but soon lost the ball when Fairholm dribbled too deep into opposing territory. Kamloops scored on the breakaway. Kelowna trailed by 3 points. When Kelowna brought the ball up the floor, Kamloops again took it, ball-hawked it and decided to rag the ball instead of scoring. Kelowna fouled in a vain attempt to get possession Kamloops made them both. Kelowna scored on the return, but again had to foul to get possession. Accuracy on the free throw line gave the Merchants the victory as Kelowna kept fouling trying to get the ball... and the Merchants kept sinking the gift tosses. The final score: Kamloops 69, Kelowna 58.
